Todd Sarvies went down to the wire, but he wasn't the one P. Diddy wanted to make a star. In the finale of "P. Diddy's StarMaker" Sunday night, the music mogul went country, choosing contestant Liz Davis as the winner of his latest reality show. She gets a Bad Boy contract. Sarvies came in second. He performed Coldplay's "Fix You" during Sunday night's finale. Sarvies wasn't a favorite of Diddy's during the competition, though Diddy said he really loved his performance in the finale and that Sarvies did his thing. Throughout the competition, Sarvies was a favorite of the other judges. Congratulations to Sarvies for holding it down from his first week on the show.
